From the outgoing Prince and Princess

Our time grows short and Our Tribe calls us back to the lands of our ancestors. We have adventured far and wide within Cynagua, The Kingdom of the West, and indeed into the Known World sharing the bounty of this wondrous Principality with many and more. We have fought fierce battles and forged bonds of friendship and fealty. We have feasted, and danced, and made merry. We have discovered remarkable support and caring in the hearts of Our Populace, and remarkable beauty and skill in the hands of Our Populace.

As We turn homeward, We do so with joyful and light hearts, knowing that Our Heirs, Their Excellencies Walerich and Catriona, are fearsome and strong and will care for Our People as the Mother Pen cares for her Cygnets.

Beannachtai, Mo Chairde!

Miach, Prionsa

Sciath, Banphrionsa

From the incoming Prince and Princess

Greetings unto the populace of Cynagua!

The big day is finally here! We are both excited to share this day with you and would like to send a special Thank You to all who were involved in making it happen. There is no way we could have done it without all the willing and helpful hands that were involved. We are looking forward to this reign and Our first events as Prince and Princess will start in February with War College in Napa and then putting that knowledge to use at Estrella!

We'd also like to say, that if We haven't already made your acquaintance, please feel free to introduce yourself to Us anytime! Let the fun begin!

Yours in Service,

Walerich and Catriona

Prince and Princess of Cynagua

Siege Weaving Challenge is coming! Are you up to the inkle / table weaving challenge? Details available in Feb. so you can train up and meet us at May Coronet.

From the Bard:

Attention Bards of Cynagua!

I am frequently told by a large number of Bards, when asked if they will enter the Bard of Cynagua Competition, that they are “not properly prepared”. Well, think of this as ADVANCE NOTICE. While we gather here this day to celebrate one reign drawing to a close, and another beginning, we can look to May Coronet for the contest that will determine who will be the next “BoC”. The topics will be as follows:

- Person Best Piece.
- A Piece in Honor of Cynagua, or The Royals
- A Period, or “period style” piece (WITH documentation).
- A “Surprise”. (Not the usual “3 words from a hat”).

Should you have any questions, please contact me. It is an office that is a LOT of fun. Highly glamorous and you get some cool stuff to wear!

In Service;

Vincenzo Saracini

From the Chirurgeon

There has been much ado about privacy and confidentiality in the news of late. There also has been some confusion recently about how privacy laws apply to the care rendered by chirurgeons in the SCA. Since chirurgeons don't charge for the care they provide, HIPAA (the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, a law that fines hospitals and health care providers for not keeping confidential a patient's health and identifying information) doesn't apply to SCA first aid providers.

That being said, this doesn't mean we don't take patient confidentiality seriously. The SCA's Chirurgeon's Handbook states that treatment information is of a highly personal and sensitive nature and should be treated as confidential and privileged. As with HIPAA laws, allowances are made for the sharing of patient information among care providers for the purposes of providing appropriate care. Some persons that may be given privileged information on a need-to-know basis are:

- (1) The marshallate, if deemed details may prevent similar incidents or injuries.
- (2) SCA officers who would be involved if legal action would be brought.
- (3) Officers of the chirurgeonate for reporting purposes.

Information shared should be kept to the minimum necessary for the purpose, i.e. "we have seen 3 head injuries to persons with this type of helm," or "we think that fighter there has a sprained ankle, but he insists he is OK and wants to return to fighting." Also, except for EMS or emergency care providers taking immediate care and responsibility for the patient, the handbook states that privileged information may not be shared outside the SCA, without the express prior written consent of the person.

--Gregory of St Albans

From the Chronicler

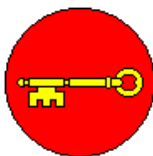

Greetings unto the Populace of Cynagua,

I have been honored to be your chronicler for the last three years and am glad to be able to introduce to you my Wonderful successor Fionnghuala of Cynagua. Please don't kill her ☺ and if you have words, pictures, bardic pieces you would like to see in the Vox please send them to her at chronicler@cynagua.westkingsom.org

In friendship and service,

Danaë FitzRoberts aka Hobbit

Cynagua Chronicler

From the Seneschal Message one

Greetings Cynagua

In light of all the officer changes that are happening at all levels in the kingdom, I thought I would use this space to let you all know how the process of becoming an officer works. This may not be new information for some, or even most of you, but it bears repeating for the newer members of the populace.

1. The officer posts their position in the appropriate newsletter (The Page for Principality officers) for their group at least six months before they step down. That posting will also include a cut off date that applications will be accepted.

2. Once that office is posted, interested people should send a "resume" to the officer, the next level officer (the principality officer if you are applying for a local position, kingdom officer if you are applying for a principality position) and to the appropriate royalty. A resume of this kind lists the things/activities you have been involved with in the SCA and any mundane experience that may be relevant to the position.

3. Once the cut off date is reached, the officer will discuss all of the applicants with the royalty and the next level officer and a decision will be made and the applicant notified.

If you are interested in any of the offices in your group, but aren't sure what the job entails etc, contact that officer and see if they need a deputy. It is a great way to learn and gain experience.

As always, please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

In Service,

Baroness Katrina Yarbrough,

Seneschal of Cynagua

From the Seneschal Message Two

Greetings to the populace of Cynagua!

As you all know, my term of office is drawing to a close. We are actively seeking applicants for my position as Seneschal of this great principality. Please send your resume (include SCA things and pertinent mundane things) to myself, Their Highnesses and the Kingdom Seneschal if you are interested. The deadline to apply is now April 1st.

Feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

In Service,

Baroness Katrina Yarbrough,

Seneschal of Cynagua

From Cynagua Gold Key

I am looking for a Deputy to eventually take over the office of Gold Key. Currently, we have a sizable inventory of items that are listed in a control book and several containers. A little something for everyone to wear, so to speak. If you are interested in taking over this office and working with the Cynagua Seneschal, please let me know. Bragging rights include a cool banner that you can display on your pavilion.

YIS: Uncle Vinnie

From the Cynagua Needle workers

Greetings to the Populace of Cynagua,

The Sable Swan Needleworkers have been very busy creating gifts for largess and to honor our Prince/Princess's. To enable us to continue this grand work we will be hosting a silent auction during May coronet featuring the works of many of the artisans in Cynagua. If you are interested in donating an item to the auction or material to create largess please contact me.

From the Seneschal of Vakkerfjell

The winter has been mild and lovely, and Vakkerfjell has flourished in peace and prosperity. Our cattle are fat, our horses sleek and our sheep woolly. Our Maidens are beauteous, our treasure chests full, and soon the weasels will come into season.

But we are not a smugly content Shire...no... we live on edge, ever vigilant, for fear covetous raiders will come and take from us that which we have struggled to build. We remember well the clash of swords and the roar of the horns of war.

We remember the conniving, the larceny, the gambling and the assaults upon the innocent inhabitants of the castles. So we stand ready, waiting for the raiders to come pouring into these bountiful lands with greed in their hearts.

Because we are a peaceful shire, we'd never do anything to invite that type of thing...honest.
