Words from the Prince and Princess

Ghosts and goblins haunt the woods to frighten fighters and consorts upon the field, but our Heirs fear no obstacles. They look toward the future when they rise above all others to reign over these fair lands. Emboldened by the resolve of stalwart couples in Cynagua, our youth and rapier fighters join the fray. Mischievous spirits need beware as our energetic youth combatants flood the forests in a sweeping hunt to banish all frights on Sunday morning.

Her Highness will mount her charger to lead this Band of Warriors to make Our lands safe for the new Heirs. The strongest rapier fighters of the West, inspired by this Cynaguan bravery, will strut upon The List Field on Sunday to battle for La Prima Spada.

The weekend promises glimpses of all the bounty of Cynagua: fighting, feasting, merriment, TRICK OR TREATING around the grove, hunting, archery, art, and more. We welcome each of you to this wonderful event. Create and share memories to last for years to come.

Heinrich and Else

From the Seneschal

Greetings Cynagua,

I cannot believe that I am coming up on two years as being the Principality Seneschal for our fine Principality of Cynagua; the time has gone by so fast. I will be stepping down at Cynagua Spring Coronet and my successor will take over the keys to the Principality. As this Principality office is open to members of the SCA their Highnesses and I will be accepting applications for the position through the day before West Kingdom 12th night (January 5th, 2020). Those applications can be emailed both seneschal@cynagua.westkingdom.org and royals@cynagua.westkingdom.org.

I must say that it has been an honor to work alongside so many fine people throughout my time in office and all have helped contribute to our overall dream here in Cynagua.

Yours in Service

Lord Gavin Conall of Greenlaw

Seneschal, Principality of Cynagua

A recipe from the Head Cook and Event Steward of Golden Rivers Anniversary Banquet –
Moira O'Connor and Caoilinn Rose Maddox

From "A Drizzle of Honey - Recipes of Spain's Secret Jews", by David M. Gittlitz & Linda Kay Davidson.

We tested this recipe when the weather first changed.
Wonderful, full flavor, even though the modern palate desired more salt. The longer it cooks, the thicker the sauce. My husband, who is a fast-food junky, ate three bowls. We served it with bread and butter.

This will be served at Golden Rivers Anniversary Banquet in November.

Carne con Yerba Buena (Beef Mint Stew)

3 tablespoons Olive Oil (plus more if needed)
3 cloves of Garlic, coarsely chopped
2 onions, quartered
1 & 1/2 lbs beef, cut into 1&1/2 inch cubes
Beef or Vegetable Broth, and/or water
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 cup loosely packed fresh, chopped mint
2 & 1/2 cups loosely packed fresh chopped parsley
4-5 cups chopped cabbage

In a large ovenproof stew pot, heat the olive oil. Fry the garlic until golden on medium high heat. Add the onions and sauté until golden, stirring so they will not burn, about 5 to 6 minutes. Remove the garlic and onions and set aside.

Sauté the meat on medium high heat until lightly brown on all sides, adding more oil if needed to keep from sticking. Return the garlic and onion mixture to the pot. Add just enough broth (or water) to barely reach the top of the meat. Cover and simmer for 2 and ½ hours, stirring occasionally.

Add the salt, mint, parsley and cabbage to the pot. Stir once. Cover the pot. Turn the heat up and bring the stew to bubbling boil. Turn the heat down and simmer covered, for 20 minutes.

Preheat the oven to 250 degrees. Put the covered stew pot in the center of the oven and continue cooking until ready to serve, at least 2 hours, but as long as all night. The stew will resemble a thick, brown soup.

Greetings from your friendly neighborhood Kingdom Teamster!

Would you like to perform the ultimate service to your Kingdom?

Did you know that it is really not that hard?

Do you have a V8 truck with a tow hitch?

Would you like to have your gas to and from The Kingdom events you are already planning to go to paid for?

Well I have the perfect job for you!

Here is what you need to know: YOU don't actually have to haul the trailer to every Kingdom event, you just need to make sure it gets there and back. So if you have a household that wants to do this as a team that would work too. Make sure it is in good repair at all times, (the Kingdom pays for this), keep the 4 propane tanks full, (the kingdom pays for this), make sure the contents are safe and secure and dry (space to lay things out after a wet event) at all times. Report any issues to the Kingdom Regalia Officer and plans will be made to correct it.

At Beltane 2020, my 2-year term is up. I have really enjoyed my time as teamster, but I will be taking a different path after Beltane and will no longer be in a position to continue to bring the trailer to Kingdom events.

Contact me or our Kingdom Regalia Officer or our Fantastic Royals to find out how you too can help support your Kingdom. Thank you.

Greetings Cynagua!

You keep hearing about different officers looking for deputies or successors. Are you wondering about what the different officers are and how they are run? What you might need to be a deputy or successor?

There will be a round table discussion Friday evening of Cynagua Fall Coronet in the Dangel Tor Pavilion.

Come listen, ask questions, learn and maybe even leave inspired to get involved with the running of our Shires, Provinces, Baronies and Principality. To volunteer to speak or if you have questions, please contact me.

Their Highnesses, Heinrich and Else, wish for all to join them in the selection of Their Heirs! The Coronet Tournament will be double elimination with West Kingdom armor standards. Their Highnesses invite all combatants, Heavy, Rapier, and Youth to contest for Roses. The Roses Field will open third round or when space becomes available.

On Saturday evening, Their Highnesses will host a Fry Party and encourage all youth to Trick or Treat around the List field. Halloween inspired garb admired, but not required. Their Highness have also promised the estate owners that all monsters will be cleared from the Royal hunting grounds before Their progress departs the Nelson's Grove Estate. To that end, Her Highness would like to invite all youth and the young at heart to a Sunday morning Stick-horse-mounted, Monster Hunt. Activities to be followed by a Hunt Breakfast to welcome the Lord and Lady of the Swan with entertainment provided by the Prima Spada Tournament.

There will be a Copper Spoon Competition and A&S Competitions on Saturday. There will also be Archery!

Please see the Facebook event page for more details:
<https://www.facebook.com/events/1967373956608022/>

Please understand that we will have a slightly smaller than average list field, so the space around the field will be limited. There is plenty of camping space, but the site is a beautifully wooded location, so open field areas are minimal. RV Parking is available for $25 per night. Please contact the park directly.

Wooden Spoon at Investiture

Period Feasting: Time to pull out your best! Using your skills, arts and crafts, create the accoutrements of luxurious living in the Middle Ages/Renaissance. One-page documentation is recommended. (Research papers are welcome. Please contact the A&S officer a month ahead of time to arrange judging.)

Peri-oid feasting: Bring items created to make the feast table and hall spectacular! It doesn't have to be period but should hide the modern feel.

(Note: Needs to fit on one-quarter of a standard table in a feast hall. Anything larger will need prior arrangement with A&S Officer, so plans can be arranged with the Event Steward)

If you have questions please contact THL Agnes berengarii de Girona, Cynagua Arts & Sciences Officer.

Thank you for supporting our game through your creativity!
